

Proofs of Identity!

(Answers the question "Who are God's Chosen People?")

by BRIG. GEN. JACK MOHR, C.P.D.F.

Today, a great controversy is going on throughout Christendom over the "identity" of what the Bible calls "God's Chosen People."

There are three "schools of thought" among Christian scholars on this subject and there are sincere teachers in all of them. Obviously all of them could not be right. In 1 Corinthians 11:19, the Apostle Paul says: "For there must also be heresies among you, that they WHICH ARE APPROVED may be made MANIFEST among you." (Emphasis added.) (The word "heresies", as used here, comes from the Greek word which means "disunion," while "manifest," means "to make apparent or known.") Weymouth translated this more clearly when he writes: "For there must of necessity be differences of opinion among you, in order that it may be plainly seen who are the men of sterling worth among you."

Once open discussion on any subject is cut off, men fail to learn the truth. Knowing this, the opponents of Israel-Identity truth, have misrepresented Bible teachings, so as to confuse the mind and hide the truth. Free discussion of this subject would open the mind of Christians as to what the Scripture really says, but to do this, the truth would have to be told about the people we now know as Jews, and this the majority of the "brainwashed" Christian world refuses to do.

There is a great similarity here in the controversy over teaching Scientific Creationism in the Public Schools. The Secular Humanists know if this were allowed, they would be exposed as the frauds they really are, so led by the Jewish established and controlled American Civil Liberties Union, they are doing everything possible to combat this teaching.

Let us briefly discuss these schools of thought.

1 - THE JEWISH SCHOOL: According to this teaching, only the people we now know as Jews, are the hereditary descendants of God's Chosen People Israel. They claim that the promises concerning Israel have either been, or will yet be fulfilled in the Jewish people. When you ask them an embarrassing question such as: "Do you really believe that the black singer, Sammy Davis, Jr., is a descendant of Abraham," they get angry.

In Genesis 48:19, the King James Version records these words of Jacob-Israel: ". . . he also (Manasseh) shall become a people, and he shall be great: but truly his younger brother (Ephraim) shall be greater than he and his seed shall BECOME A MULTITUDE OF NATIONS." (Emphasis added.)

Without the shadow of a doubt, this promise has never been fulfilled in the people we call Jews. There is only one group of people in the world who fit this description and this is the British Commonwealth of nations, with their rebellious daughter, the United States of America.

Regardless of what fundamental and evangelical scholars may say to the contrary, the descendants of the whole House of Israel are on the earth today and they will shortly be revealed as One Great Nation. Of this you can be sure! That day is very near!

Ezekiel 37:22, speaking of this time says: "And I will make them one nation upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king over them all: and THEY SHALL NO LONGER BE TWO NATIONS (Judah and Israel), neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all." (Emphasis added.) This will take place before the invasion of Gog and Magog, as foreseen in Ezekiel 38 and 39.

Now before you begin to say: "See, all this will happen in Palestine," I want to ask something. "Do the 17-million people known as Jews, who are alive today, fulfill God's promise to Abraham, as given in Genesis 13:16? Here God said: "I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered."

Go a step farther and consider the fact, that a large percentage of the people known as Jews (possibly as high as 80~'6) have no Abrahamic blood flowing in their veins. This would make the "true Jews" number about 3.5 million, certainly not "like the dust of the earth in number." You can confirm the non-Abrahamic identity of most Jews, by simply reading history and the Jewish Encyclopedia and by doing some study in the Bible. In Esther 8:17, we read: ". . . And many people of the land became Jews; for fear of the Jews fell upon them." Then if you will read further in Ezra and Nehemiah, you will realize that the Jews who came back from Babylonian captivity were a mixture of many people. Once again, do you honestly believe a people "like the dust of the earth in number," could fit into tiny Palestine? Or even all the area promised Abraham in Genesis 13:14?

But wait before you come to any decision. Turn in your Bible to 2 Samuel 7:10. Here we find King David, at the height of his power, standing in his palace in Jerusalem, while the prophet Natham makes a most unusual prophecy concerning Israel: "Moreover I will appoint a place for my people Israel (but why appoint them a place, if they were already in the Promised Land? But this is what he says.) and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as afore time." So a little common sense, will show you that this Appointed Place could not be in Palestine. The word "appoint" (Strong's Concordance 7760) is from the Hebrew word "siyn" and means "to set up; to put; to ordain." The word "plant" (5193) is "nata," which means "to fix or fasten."

What God was literally saying here was: "I will set up a place for my people Israel and will fasten them there." This is exactly what He did when our Anglo-Saxon forefathers moved from their captivity in Assyria, north and west through Europe, then to the British Isles and finally on to North America. We find them scattered through this "great company of nations," (Genesis 17:6). In this family of mighty nations (England, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and the United States; plus the other Anglo Saxon and related peoples,) we find more than 400 million people, certainly a more apt description of the vast multitude God promises would be Abraham's heirs.

2 - The Second School of Thought is the CHURCH SCHOOL.

According to this teaching, which usually accepts the Jewish School of Thought, we find that the Church has taken the place of Israel. All of the great promises God gave to Israel are spiritualized and assigned to the Church.

But nowhere in the Scriptures can you find a place where God substituted the Church for the Nation of Israel. God's promises to the earthly nation have never been and can never be fulfilled by the Church.

Israel as an elect company of servant nations, with members of the Church of Jesus Christ in her midst, has been, and now is blessing the entire world, as foretold over and over again in prophecy. The Jewish people have never witnessed for God and His Son, Jesus Christ. In fact, the God they worship today is not the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. This can be confirmed by reading from the writings of modern day Jewish rabbis. They will admit that as many as 65% of the people known as Jews, are either agnostics or atheists and then will tell you with a straight face: "The Jewish people are their own Messiah."

Only the Anglo-Saxon and related people have sent missionaries into all the world; only this one unique group of nations has printed the Word; only this one group have set the oppressed of the world free; only this group have fed the world's hungry. Certainly it has not been the people we call Jews . . . their only interest is in their own people and what they can get for themselves.

You don't have to be a brilliant Bible scholar to see that the Israel Identity marks are on the Anglo-Saxon peoples and they alone. If you were to take an intelligent young person from anywhere in the world, one who had never heard modern church preaching concerning the Jews, and if you were to give that young person a Bible and a world history book, when they had made a comprehensive study, 100% of them would tell you that the marks of Israel fall only on the Anglo-Saxon people, the Jews just cannot qualify.

The Apostle Paul said of true Israel, not the Jews. ". . . Hath God cast away His people? God forbid . . . hath not cast away His people which He foreknew . . ." Why is it then, that our churchmen insist that it is the Jews, (who are the enemies of God of Jesus Christ,) and the Christian Church, who are the Chosen People of God? Why do they designate these Satan inspired people and dignify them as God's Chosen?

Certainly the Church fulfills none of the earthly, physical parts of the Abrahamic Covenant; while in no area of the world, has the Church been accorded the freedom allowed them in the Anglo-Saxon nations.

3 - This brings us to the Third School of Thought, what I choose to call the ANGLO-ISRAEL SCHOOL. (I do not use the term British-Israel, because it conjures up misleading ideas, ala Herbert W. Armstrong and similar cultists.)

According to the Anglo-Israel School, the British Commonwealth of Nations, the Americans, and all peoples of Anglo-Saxon, Scandanavian, Celtic, and Germanic origin, are the lineal descendants of ancient Israel. Here I depart from the teachings of some Anglo-Israelites. I insist that Scripture teaches that true Israelites will not be allowed into God's Kingdom on earth, unless they first become "born again," as shown in John 3:3. Israelites, just as Gentiles can only reach this exalted position within the love of God, through this heart change. Some Identity preachers teach that all that is important is that you are of Israelite descent . . . they are wrong! (Read Ezekiel 20:37, 38).

The term "born again," while a good, valid Scriptural term, has been terribly misused in recent years. But John 3:3 clearly states to Israelite and Gentile alike, without equivocation: ". . . Except a man (or woman) be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." Then John goes on to further explain this wonderful change in verses 16-18.

There are some people called Jews, a very small percentage to be sure, who are Israelites, most of them are not. But all Israelites are not Jews, as our fundamental preachers would have us believe. And all the people known as Jews are not of Israel. I happen to be of German descent, on my father's side, yet I am an American, because I was born in this country. Yet all Americans are not Germans, there are many of English, Scandanavian and other descents. If I were to try and convince you otherwise, you would rightly consider me to be a fool. Yet most of our brilliant (?) Bible scholars, insist that "the Jews are all of Israel." They refuse to accept Biblical and historical proofs, that most Jews are not Jews at all, but fit the category mentioned in Revelation 2:9 - "those which say they are Jews and are not, but are of the synagogue of Satan."

Those who refuse to distinguish between the so-called Jews of today and the Israelites, and then mix them up with the Church, have been remiss in heeding Paul's admonition to young Timothy in 2 Timothy 2:15 - "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." (That word "dividing" is the Greek word "orthotomeo" - 3718 - which means "properly expounding.") This they most certainly have not done.

The vast majority of the Israel people can be found today in the Anglo-Saxon and related peoples, even though most of them do not recognize their heritage. They have been blinded to their wonderful inheritance through the teaching of their spiritual leaders. The Apostle Paul speaks of this blindness in Romans 11:25, when he says: "For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery." What mystery is he speaking of? See verse 11 - "As it is written, God hath given them (Israel, not the Jews) the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear . . ." Jesus told His Israelite disciples (only Judas the traitor was a Jew) in Matthew 13:16 - "But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear."

There are many references in prophecy to this blindness, on the part of the Israel people, as to their true identity. In Isaiah 65:15, God, speaking to the Jews, said: "And ye shall leave your name for a CURSE unto my chosen; for the Lord God will slay thee (compare with Luke - 19:27) and call His servants by another name." (This name was "Christian," Acts 11:26).

So let me show you from the Word of God, that the promises made to Israel were not fulfilled in the Church, neither by the Jews, since their earthly fulfillment must of necessity be in families, nations, kings and land.

Unfortunately, as far as modern scholars are concerned, our modern people sprang from nothing, or so it seems. When the history of ancient peoples is studied, it is without any concern whatsoever, that they might have been our ancestors. This is especially true among Bible scholars.

Have you ever wondered why certain nations have a natural distrust for each other? Of course there is the stress of recent history, which in the case of the Soviet Union has been unrelenting warfare against all Christian nations. But few Christians will acknowledge that this is a Jewish hatred, since Communism is Jewish.

Few of our scholars will admit that this distrust and antagonism goes back into the dim past and was caused by ancient injustices and animosities which we do not even remember today.

Because this is so and because God in His all-knowing wisdom made certain promises to a certain people - promises which even now are in the process of fulfillment - the identification of this people can be clearly established.

If you will be honest enough to put aside all the preconceived notions you have heard preached in your church; which have applauded and praised the Jews as God's People - if you will get away from the "brainwashing" of your pastor and the seminary which "brainwashed" him - if you will earnestly and prayerfully seek the leading and guidance of God's Holy Spirit and will allow Him to guide your thinking, rather than some Dr. Scofield, then and only then, will you be able to see and understand the wonderful truth of Israel Identity.

For over fifty years, I wallowed in the spiritual blindness of so-called "fundamentalism." I use these words, because the beliefs of this group concerning the modern Jews, are based on "man-made" conceptions, which are completely invalidated by the Word of God. In many instances, the preaching of their evangelists and leading scholars, has superceded the teaching of God's Holy Word. Today, we find this group in a blind allegiance with the Zionists, who are the avowed enemies of everything they say they stand for.

Recently, one of the most powerful leaders in the Moral Majority told me: "I have backed the Jews for years. I have defended and honored them as God's People. Yet today, my bitterest adversaries are Jews. Why is this?" Yet when I tried to show him from the Bible, how Christian people have been mis-led by this Satanic brood, when I went into history to prove that the Jews could not be the People of the Book, he said: "I can't honestly answer any of your arguments, but the Church says they are God's People and I must go along with that."

When I first broached the Jewish Question to my own pastor, he refused to look at any proof I was about to give and told me: "If you persist in your efforts to expose the Jews, the door of every Baptist church in America will be slammed in your face." He wasn't far from wrong. When I sent out a letter to 200 fundamental pastors in the fall of 1980, stating my new-found position, I had an immediate cancellation of 14 Crusades scheduled in 1981 and for all intents and purposes, I have been "blackballed" in the fundamental churches of America. Was it because I had departed from the faith? Not at all! I still preach as hard on the fundamentals as I always did. But nothing must stand in their way of defending the Jews. Today, the majority of pastors who once called me friend, will not even speak to me. Not because of apostasy, but because I have exposed the Jews for the "frauds," and "enemies" of Christianity, they are. They would rather see America fall to a Jewish-Communist takeover, than tell their people the truth.

Now let's look at racial characteristics. Each race has certain characteristics which are inherent. (This means essentially a part of.") Men who have studied and are familiar with racial types will recognize this.

The great southern philosopher, Tom Anderson aptly said: "Negroes are noted for their athletic prowess and for eating each other." On the surface that may seem like a "racial" slur. But people who live in Africa know that while cannibalism is virtually unknown among the white race, it is not uncommon for the blacks to revert to this practice.

Two distinct racial groups will not respond to the same emergency in the same way. An Englishman will react in a different manner to a train wreck than a Hottentot. It has nothing whatsoever to do with their education, but to their racial background. When you take the time and effort to study racial characteristics, you will find that they draw boundaries which are more distinct than geographical ones. Political pressures and war can cause geographical boundaries to change, but no amount of persecution or pressure can change racial characteristics.

One of the outstanding racial characteristics of the Anglo-Saxon and related peoples, is their love for freedom. Over and over again, they have proven their willingness to die, rather than live as slaves. This desire has been expressed in such terms as : "Give me liberty, or give me death!"; "I'd rather die on my feet, than live on my knees." It has produced such magnificent documents as the Magna Carta and our own matchless Constitution with its incomparable Bill of Rights.

There has been no other race on the face of the earth who have been motivated to reniam free and set others free, like the white Anglo-Saxons; no others have "preached good tidings unto the meek; bound up the broken hearted; proclaimed liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound. To proclaim the acceptable day of the Lord," (Isaiah 61:1, 2). The Jews have never done this, except for their own selfish interests. The blacks never have; neither the yellow people of the world.

I believe one of the greatest evidences of a people's desire to remain free, is their reaction to unjust taxation. We people of the Anglo-Saxon race have stood for many injustices on the part of our governments (which strange to say, have been under Jewish control). Our desire to remain free, has often been hampered by the Church, for never in the history of the world, have we seen the Church cooperate in treason and in the subjugation of our people, as we have in the Twentieth Century. Even our fundamental groups, who make the loudest noise about their freedom, have succumbed to tile siren song of the Jewish propagandists and we see them cooperating to their own destruction.

I shudder when I see fundamentalist leaders such as Dr. Jerry Falwell, as they give "blanket approval" to the evil aggression of the Jewish Hitler, Nienacheni Begin, saying. We will back you, no matter what you do." This is a complete repudiation of the Biblical admonition of

2~Chronicles 19:2 - ". . . Shouldest thou help the ungodly and love them that hate the Lord? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the Lord."

Yet under the leadership of our preachers, who misinterpret the Word, we are told: "But let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God," (Romans 13:1). I have never known one who told their people that the word translated "power" in the King James Version, should have been "authority," since the Greek word used here is "exousia," which means "authority." They have never been shown the differences between "Power" and "authority." Nor have they been told that when the authority of government clashes with God's Laws it is their rather than men."

The ancient history of our race shows it escaping from unjust persecution and taxation in Egypt. Then, hundreds of years later, after a split in the nation due to taxation, they become the nation of the Ten Tribes of Israel, as distinct from Judah.

Our modern history shows a parallel, as our forefathers leave Europe to escape tyranny and oppression and then later, split with the mother land, again over unjust taxation.

The records of the Scythians, the Goths, Visigoths, scanty as they are, ring with the cry of free men. Even the great military genius, Julius Caesar, marvelled at the desire of the Britons to remain free - they were the only men Rome never conquered.

Another striking mark of our identity can be found in our laws. First the Magna Carta of England, then our own Constitution, with its Bill of Rights. These are the only law systems in the entire world, which are built on the verities of God's laws. This should tell you something.

We marvel at the reasons why our Union was founded: "to establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty for ourselves and our posterity." This was what God expected of His people. Listen to Amos 5:24 - "But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream." Listen to Hosea 6:6 - "For I (God) desire mercy and not sacrifice: and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings." Micah 6:8 tells us further, "He (God) hath shown thee, O man, what is good: and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God." These were never Jewish characteristics, but they are those of Anglo-Israel. They are inborn traits. That is why our people have freed the slaves, (who were enslaved and carried to the Israel nations by Jewish traders;) we have fed the hungry of the world and have fought against oppression in two great world wars.

Turn back the pages of history, if you will, and watch as our forefathers gathered in a great natural amphitheatre in the Sinai Wilderness. They were there to listen to God's Laws, delivered from the lips of Jehovah Himself, and spoken through His servant Moses. We listen as our forefathers, by unanimous vote, cast their ballot for Jehovah and His way of doing things. Exodus 19:8 - "And ALL the people answered together, and said, All that the Lord saith, we will do."

Why have the Anglo-Saxon peoples thrived in their system of laws? A system unique in the annals of mankind. Because they were based on that great Law, given to our forefathers, centuries earlier at Mt. Sinai. We call it the Ten Commandments. It has become so ingrained in the consciousness of Israel people, that centuries later, when most of them are unaware of their Israel identity, they still yearn for the Laws of their God.

Our forefathers moved from the relative security of Egypt, into the unknown dangers of the Wilderness. While in Egypt, as slaves, they had little to worry about, since they were fed and housed by the state. But driven by their in-grained love of freedom, they forsook Egypt for the dangers of the unknown.

The book of Hebrews, in its great chapter on Faith (11) tells us about our great revolutionary leader Moses, (24-27) "By faith Moses, when he was come to years (literally when he was grown up), refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter (notice closely now), choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God (not a one of them were Jews), than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt." What a mighty testimony and what a tremendous example for us to follow. That sounds as though Moses was a Christian.

Much later, after the division of the Kingdom, under Solomon's son, Rehoboam, about 975 B.C. (1 Kings 12), the Northern Kingdom, made up of ten tribes, became known as Israel. From this time onward, in the Bible, they are always listed separately from the southern kingdom of Judah. About 726 B.C. the Northern Kingdom was taken into captivity in Assyria (see 2 Kings 17:23) with the exception of a few Israelites who had moved to Judea. From here on, Bible history is silent. But secular history, the same kind of history which is accepted in our record of other nations, follows the Israelites on their trek to the north and west into Europe, then the British Isles and finally their Appointed Place in North America. For some strange reason, Bible scholars who will accept historical records of Egypt, Babylonia and Assyria, which are centuries older than the record of Israel's movement north and west, refuse to accept the records which prove that Israel did indeed move through these lands.

When the Pilgrim Fathers landed at Plymouth Rock, on November 21, 1621, they knew who they were. They called themselves: "the seed of Abraham, God's servant, and the children of Jacob, His chosen." These were their words, as seen in their written records.

They used the old Israelite word "led," not "driven," when they explained their movement to the New World. They believed God had brought them to these shores for a special purpose.

Their passage to these shore was speeded by the great Israelite texts. They braced themselves for trouble from the unknown, with the great Israelite promises. They kept their colony free from blood and crime by following God's Laws, and they allotted their land as Israel had done.

No wonder with this background, that Christians of the Eighteenth Century could sing:

Ye chosen seed of Israel's race,
Ye ransomed from the fall.
Hail Him who saves you by His grace,
And crown Him, Lord of All!

Other peoples had moved West too, but they came for different motives. The French came seeking a rich, fur-bearing empire. The Spaniards came seeking gold, land, and converts to Catholicism. But our forefathers sought the right to worship God in spirit and in truth.

Listen in on the conference which was held in the stuffy cabin of the ship Mayflower, as she lay anchored off what is now Provincetown, Massachusetts. It was November 21, 1621: "In the name of God, Amen! We whose names are underwritten, having undertaken for the glory of God and the advancement of the Christian faith, a voyage to plant the first colony, do by these present, solemnly and mutually, in the presence of God, combine ourselves in a civil body politic." This was the beginning of American politics.

A few years later, when the colonies had grown to four, a Federation became desirable and the Articles of this Confederation read: "Whereas we all came to these parts of America with one and the same end: namely the advancement of the Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ and to enjoy the liberties of the Gospel in purity, we therefore conceive it our bounded duty . . . that, as in nation, and religion, so in other respects, we be and continue as one." It was this declaration that made us, the American people, a people who were to manifest the same characteristics which had been found in ancient Israel.

We, as the Israel people, built a Christian nation, it was not conceived as a place where other religions would be allowed to flourish; it was not to be a "pluralistic nation," as Jerry Falwell has called us. It was to build Christian-Israel, on this Continent, in accordance with God's promise of 2 Samuel 7:10 "Moreover, I (God) will appoint a place for my people and will plant (fasten) them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and MOVE NO MORE . . ." (This doesn't sound like a universal return to Israel-Palestine, does it?)

Yes, my disbelieving Christian friend, America was settled by Israelites; she was designed to be a Christian nation. We were no longer to be called by the name of our father Jacob-Israel, but were to be given a new name, the name of our God, and Messiah, Jesus the Christ. (See 2 Chronicles 7:14; Isaiah 62:2; 65:15; Acts 11:26).

The characteristic of loving freedom is specific in our race alone; it is not a Jewish characteristic. I say this because the Talmudic religion of modern Jewry, leads men and women into slavery, where as that of our Lord leads to freedom. It's no wonder our Lord told the Talmudic Pharisees, in John 8:32 - "And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." Right here, the Jews proved they were not Israelites, for their leaders said, verse 33: ". . . We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man . . ." This in itself should prove they were not Israelites.

As a nation at Sinai, our forefathers accepted the responsibility of administering God's Kingdom on this earth. (This was the Kingdom Jesus told us to pray for in Matthew 6:10 and Luke 11:2 -

". . . Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, IN EARTH, as it is in heaven." This was to be an earthly kingdom.)

We were to be a "servant race;" not one who would seek to lord it over others as the Jews have always attempted to do. We were not to consider ourselves a "superior people," who would subdue others, but a nation which had been specially chosen for God's own purpose. Listen to the Apostle Peter as he speaks, not to Jews, not to Christian Gentiles, but to the "strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia," (I Peter 1:1). (These could have been only Israelites.) In (2:9) Peter says of them: "But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, (notice this word "nation" very closely, it is the Greek word "ethnos," which means "a nation of people, specifically a non-Jewish one.") a peculiar people that ye should show forth the praised of Him who hath called you out, of darkness into His marvelous light."

Now I know you have been told in your churches, that this refers to "born again" Christians, who are tile "spiritual Israel." But Christians are not a nation, any more than are Jews, Muslims, or Buddhists. A religious body cannot be a nation, since a Nation is "a politically organized nationality."

Peter was very possibly thinking of Moses' words in Deuteronomy 10:15, where He said: "Only the Lord had a delight in your fathers to love them), and He CHOSE THEIR SEED after Them, even you above all people... circumcize therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiffnecked." Moses was referring to that personal application, each son and daughter of Israel must make, if they are to enter into the Kingdom of God.

The Apostle Paul tells us in Romans 2:28 - "For he is not a Jew (Judean), which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh. But he is a Jew ("Judean" from the Greek word "Ioudaios," in the sense of being a citizen of Judea, "belonging to Judah." The term "Jew" is improperly used here and did not appear in the original of the Douay translation, the 1611 King James Version or the Weymouth translation). "But he is a Jew which is one inwardly: and circumcision is that of the heart, and [not in the letter . . ."

Isaiah, speaking in (62:12) says: "And they shall call them (Israel, not the Jews) The holy people, The redeemed of the Lord . . ."

Our task as Anglo-Israelites is to be "light bearers," to all the world. When Jesus gave His great Commission in Acts 1:8, His last act before returning to His Father, He was not speaking to Gentiles, neither were they Jews. These men were all Israelites. With the exception of Judas Iscariot, all of Christ's disciples were Galileans, and were therefore Israelites. This can be confirmed by reading verse II, the words of the angels who spoke to the disciples as they stood gazing after the departed Christ: "Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven?" Christ said to these Galileans: ". . . Ye shall be witnesses unto me, both in Jerusalem (starting in) and in all Judea, (then into Judea), and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost parts of the earth." The Kingdom message was to be carried by these Holy Ghost empowered Israelites (vs 8 - "But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you.") first to Jerusalem; then into Judea; then north to Samaria the stronghold Israel and from there into all the world.

The Anglo-Saxon people have been the only people on God's earth who have done this. This is probably one of the most outstanding proofs of our Israel identity. It in itself should prove that we are true Israel. Certainly the Jews have never qualified in this sense, even by the greatest stretch of theological imagination.

When our forefathers at Mt. Sinai unanimously accepted the responsibility of following God's Laws, Moses explained that two ways were open to them: "the way of life and the way of death," (Deuteronomy 30:15). There were two very important clauses which were added to this Covenant, they have become known as the "If" and "But" clauses. Moses went into great detail to explain that "life lay in obedience to God's Laws," while "disobedience would cause death." The Apostle Paul expressed this same idea in Romans 6:23 - "For the wages of sin is death . . ." The Apostle John defines sin in 1 John 3:4 - "Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for SIN IS THE TRANSGRESSION OF THE LAW." (Emphasis added.)

These clauses have never been rescinded and they are as binding on us today, as when they were first uttered in the wilderness. God's Israel people have always been blessed, as they kept His law, and have suffered the consequences when they departed from it.

Today, the Anglo-Saxon-Israel people are in the middle of a lot of travail, caused by our neglect of God's Laws. We have allowed the awful, God cursed sin of homosexuality to run rampant in our land, it has even received the approval of some of our clergy. We allowed men to freely blaspheme the name of the Lord God Jehovah and His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. We have allowed sexual sins and unbridled lust to become a way of life. We have turned our backs on God's laws concerning economics and have allowed the Jew-led, Jew-bred, Federal Reserve System to burden us with the sin of usury, which is bleeding us to death. Yet most of our churches condone this.

We have allowed our white-Israel people to intermarry with blacks and other races, in complete disregard for God's Laws concerning racial mixing, and our most popular evangelists tell our young people there is nothing wrong with this. We have allowed aliens to be elected or appointed to places of responsibility in our government, although God has told us (Jeremiah 30:21) "And their nobles (leaders) shall be of themselves, and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them

Because of our disregard for God's Laws, the British Commonwealth nations and America are seeing - "Our inheritance turned to strangers and our houses to aliens," (Lamentations 5:2). Our "country is desolate, our cities are burned with fire; our land strangers devour it in our presence, and it is desolate . . ." This has already happened to some extent, will it be our further fate, because we refuse to accept God's way of doing things?

There was a time in our nation when an office holder was required to be a Christian. Yet today, when we see men in office who are bold enough to proclaim themselves to be Christian, nine times out of ten, they will be backing our worst enemies, the Zionist Jews. (I say this because the Jews were and are the backbone of International Communism.)

I could go into the fields of "capitalism," "taxes," "monopolies," "farming," "criminal law," "national defense," "health," and "foreign policy." You would see that at the root of all our problems in all these areas which are slowly strangling us, lies a blatant disregard for God's Laws.

When we as Anglo-Israel break God's Laws, the rod of His discipline falls on us, either as an individual, or as a nation. This is for the purpose of bringing us back to God. (Read Hebrews 12:5-11).

I have often heard Christians say: "If all the Christian people in America were to unite in one mighty crusade of prayer, America would be saved!" But this is not true. While "prayer changes things," and as one has said: "There are more things wrought through prayer than this world dreams of; for the whole world is bound about the feet of God with the golden chains of prayer." Yet in order for God to work in our behalf, our prayers must be heard. In Isaiah 59:1, 2, we read these crucial words: "The arm of the Lord is not shortened, that He cannot save; neither is His ear heavy that He cannot hear: BUT YOUR SINS HAVE SEPARATED BETWEEN YOU AND YOUR GOD, THAT HE WILL NOT HEAR." (Emphasis added.)

Listen to me my Christian friend, whether you belong to the Israel people or not, you can pray until you are "blue in the face." You can spend so much time on your knees that you grow callouses, but until you are willing to get out of your spiritual foxhole and obey God, and fulfill your obligations to Him, He will not pay any attention to your pleadings. This is the Word!

We can blame the Communists and International Jewry for our problems if we desire, and we would be partially correct. But the majority of the problems which are killing us, have come about because we have disregarded God's will for our lives. Instead of doing things His way, we have been obsessed with "doing our own thing," whatever that might be. We are like the cartoon character Pogo when he said: "We have met the enemy, and he is us."

You see, we will not lose our freedoms at 3 o'clock some morning, when we open our door to a knock and find a little man with a red star on his cap and a Tommy gun, who says to us: "Come with me to the Concentration Camp." This is not when we will lose it. It will come when enough of God's people, see his laws being broken and openly disregarded - when we see it happening in our local government, in our school system and even in our churches, and we sit back before our "idiot box," and say: "There ain't anything I can do about it; I'm only an individual, you know and everyone knows you can't buck City Hall." When enough good, white Christian folks feel this way, we will lose our freedom; we will hold a funeral service for her; will haul her out to the cemetery and bury her, and over her grave we will have to erect a headstone with this epitaph: "America died, because the white Christian people in America didn't want to be bothered."

How much of God's wrath will have to be poured out on this nation before we will "turn from our wicked ways and seek His face?" (2 Chronicles 7:14). How many of our sons will have to shed their blood on the battlefield of "no win wars", before we realize why we are losing? Will America have to be driven to her knees before the heathen hordes of Jewish-Communism and suffer the fate of our Christian brethren in Russia, before we wake up? Will the streets of America have to run red with American blood, before we seek God's will?

Moses' warning to the children of Israel, as shown in Deuteronomy 28:43, is in effect today in America. It says: "The stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high and thou shalt come down low. He shall lend to thee, and thou shall not lend to him; he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail." If you can't see how this has happened in America, then you are living off in a dream world somewhere.

Would to God that our people would wake up before it is too late. Would to God that our pastors would tell their people the whole truth, rather than lead them astray with Jewish fables. No wonder we are in trouble, when our spiritual leaders dignify God's worst enemies, by calling them His chosen. It's no wonder our people are confused and do wrong, when they are taught: "The Law was done away with in Jesus Christ. (If you believe this, please read Matthew 5:17; 1 John 3:4; Romans 3:31). When you hear a preacher speak like this, you know you are listening to a man who is either a deliberate "wolf in sheep's clothing," or a person who is intellectually dishonest.

Have you ever been honest enough to ask yourself: "Why is it that the Anglo-Saxon, Scandinavian, Celtic, and related peoples kept such a vigorous, progressive culture for over 2,000 years, while others like Italy, Greece, India, Portugal and Spain, who after a glorious history filled with great achievements, have decayed and fallen from their high places in history?"

History has proven over and over again that when a nation which produces original thought, breeds with a race which produces little or no original thought, the resulting breed is always a dismal failure. This is a law of nature, as unchanging as the law of gravity, in spite of what all the social scientists may say to the contrary. It is the Bible law of "kind producing kind," as found in Genesis 2.

Let me give you one outstanding example. The Nordic Lombards conquered and ruled Northern Italy. They gave the world men such as Dante, Michaelangelo, Leonardo da Vinci, and a host of others. Practically all the major lights of the Renaissance were Nordics.

But today's Italy is "bi-racial." While most of its scientists, politicians, and high ranking military officers come from the North and are Nordic in descent, the largest part of the south and Sicily are "mixed breeds." They are part Nordic, Asiatics, Africans, and the people of ancient Mediterranean ancestry. They are a hybrid stock. Ask any Italian who the criminal element of Italy is and they will point in contempt to the southern part of the country.

I'm not trying to tell you that white people are superior to others, I'm merely pointing out a Scriptural truth, which has largely been disregarded in our Christian churches. Look at the most powerful king Israel ever had, a man by the name of Solomon. While he followed God's Laws, he was blessed beyond measure, but when in his lust, he began to disregard God's laws concerning inter-racial marriage, all sorts of "hell broke loose." Read the story for yourself in 1 Kings 11. It was this inter-marriage which destroyed his kingdom.

This is one of the major reasons you will find the Jews pushing "racial integration." They do not marry outside of their own race, but they would like to have white people do so. Why? There is a very good reason. When the Anglo-Saxon people take this road, they will be destroyed, just as the civilizations of Assyria, Babylonia and Egypt were. In the words of the Jewish Communist Lenin, we will "fall into their laps like overripe fruit."

Unfortunately, the majority of our Christian pastors have fallen for this Satanic propaganda and have been willing to sell their white, Anglo-Saxon, Israel heritage to the Jews for a mess of stinking socialistic pottage. How our enemies must laugh when they meet in New York or Tel Aviv!

What is the answer? What will keep the blight away from our cities? What will stop the erosion of our land? What will halt the birth defects, the sickness and the disease, which is running through this land like an awful unstoppable epidemic?. What will turn our military stalemate into victory? What will cure our broken homes and set the 9-million alcoholics slaves free? What will turn our mis-directed government around and head them in the right direction? What will end the crime and immorality which is swamping us like an awful tidal wave? What will end the hatred? The insanity? What will bring about the condition described by the Apostle Paul, which is God's will for us? "that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty."

It will come when the white people in America wake up to who they are and become willing to accept God's plan for their life. It will come when our churches preach "the whole truth" of the Gospel. It will come when Americans realize that only Jesus Christ, Yashuah, the Son of God the Messiah of Israel has the answers for our problem.

Men and women of Anglo-Saxon and related blood, Wake up to your Identity! Wake up to your responsibility? Wake up to the glorious future your God has promised, if you will follow HIM. Then go out in the strength He will give, to defeat our enemies and bring about God's Kingdom on this earth!

The End
